Re: Korea Line v. Alufar Pte. Ltd.
S.D.N.Y. 07 Civ 8231 (JSR)
Our Ref.: 8965/RHD

Dear Judge Rakoff:

We represent the plaintiff in the above matter and refer to the Court's recent notice that a case management conference is scheduled for December 19, 2007. For the reasons stated below, we respectfully submit that such a conference is not necessary.

This case is a Rule B maritime attachment action. The underlying claim between the plaintiff and the defendant is subject to London arbitration. This action seeks security for the claim. Since September 28, 2007 we have been serving various New York banks every business day with process of maritime attachment and garnishment seeking to capture funds of the defendant as security for the claim. So far, we have yet to receive a notice from any of the banks that defendant's funds have been captured.

11/5/07
The December 19 conference is cancelled. However, the plaintiff must advise the Court, in writing, of the status of this case every 3 months beginning 1/15/08. Meanwhile, the Clerk of the Court is directed to place the case on the Suspense Calendar. SO ORDERED

Given that the only activity in this case for the foreseeable future will consist of our daily service of process on the banks, we respectfully submit that there is no need for a case management conference.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
